I by myself, have been selling a Gig on Fiverr and it generate some serious $$$. Now I am sharing it with you all, so If you want get some extra $$$,
Follow these steps, it is that easy!

Tried & Tested Method with Zero Risk

When I started on Fiverr, many years ago, I found a British guy selling website analysis report, with title

"For $5 I will generate a website report of 9 Tips / Improvements for your website"

He got a lot of positive reviews, so I decided to copy his idea to create my own gig. So I ordered his gig with gig extra (which cost me, as I remember, 10 bucks), just to know what type of report he is selling.

After 3 days, when he send me my website report with tips. I created my own Gig of selling website improvement report.

He was a professional and his communication was highly converting. Not to mention, I also copy his communication :) what he send in first message and his message on final delivery.

The gig goes very well, generated cash and many positive reviews. I took his idea but use my mind and knowledge to generate custom reports for my clients.

There are a lot of gigs on Fiverr, selling website reports with different titles like website analysis report, website audit report, website seo report and so on. So its mean, This gig is quite popular on Fiverr. They are selling it from $5 to $99 and with gig extra, generating a tone of cash.

So this is how you can also create your own gig and sell these reports on Fiverr.

Step 1. Create your own gig. Look others gigs with the title of website report, website analysis report, website audit report, website SEO report. You may price it from $5 to $50, depending on the quality of the report contents.

Step 2. There are many software and tools available to generate that report. I personally recommend <http://www.websitereport.net> (as it is free and there is an option to download the report in PDF format).

Step 3. When you got an order, Go to <http://www.websitereport.net> and enter the client given URL into the website review input field and click on the review button. It will open a new page and start analysing the website, after analysis it will generate a complete report with different aspects like SEO, performance, page speed, website traffic and income, alexa ranking, etc.

Step 4. After report is generated, There is a button to download the report in PDF, click Download PDF button and save it on your computer.

Step 5. Now convert it into Word format, you may use www.freepdfconvert.com or www.wordtopdf.com (there are many online tools) and open it in MS-Word.

Step 6. Replace (Edit) the Headers and Footers, create your own branding and add or remove whatever you want, after editing save it as PDF. If you can't save it in PDF, visit www.freepdfconvert.com and convert it into PDF.

Step 7. Send it to your client.

When I was selling, it usually took me 10 minutes to complete a order. So if you are selling it for $10 (which is for less than the average price). You will be earning $48/Hr (after Fiverr commission), with Gig Extra you can double, triple your income.

Pro Tip: Not only on Fiverr, Sell this gig on other gig sites, like seoclerks, , gigbucks, zeerk etc.
